Choose Your Look

GOOD HAIR AND MAKEUP ARTISTS ARE MIRACLE WORKERS. CREATE YOUR OWN SPECIAL LOOK ON YOUR VERY SPECIAL DAY.

Up or down? Curly or straight? Happily romantic or ultra chic? The choice is yours. We asked four makeup artists and stylists to transform our model, Danielle Ricci (@danielaricci.com), who will be representing Katonah in the Miss New York contest in January, into four completely different looks.

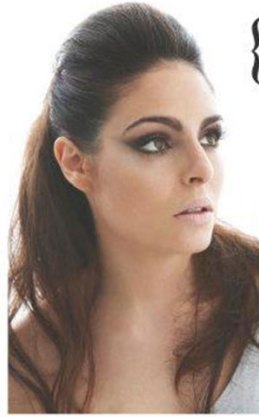

Hollywood Glamour

HAIR: Victoria Montecoso at Salon V
MAKEUP: Valerie Guglielmo, Via a Via Antistry
This loose-wave updo evokes movie stars from the past: it's a sexy look that never goes out of style. "I wanted to give her a 1940s glamour, a pin-up model look, but I added modern touches with lash extensions and glossy lips," Guglielmo says.

Blushing Bride

HAIR: Manaz Paterlini, Salon D
MAKEUP: Rosemarie Puntillo, Ivy Prototype Bridal
Loose waves with accent braiding along with a soft, natural makeup is the recipe for this ethereal, romantic look. "I used warm red browns and taupe on the eyes while using a peachy pink on the cheeks and lips," Puntillo says. "The matte texture on the skin adds softness to the look while a creamy, non-glossy lipstick adds sophistication."

Modern Bride

HAIR: Paolo Fabbini
MAKEUP: Jay Rivera
Stacie Hair Salon
"Our look is a combination of playful and glamorous," says Matthew Tappin, co-owner of Stacie. "Her hair is multi-finished 'controlled chaos' and her make-up is futuristic and shimmering. Our goal was to achieve the perfect blend of modern, yet sultry and alluring."

Cutting Edge

HAIR: Agata Young and Sandra Szymura
MAKEUP: Agata Young
Paulo's Atelier Hair Salon
"Creating a dramatic look is challenging, as it must be classy and current, yet be something the bride will be happy with in years to come," Szymura says. "Our model's strong features and luxurious hair made for a rare creative freedom for both of us," Young says. "Our look features big, dramatic curls with a subliminal fan of strands to define and anchor the style."
